ABOUT ME

I'm a Graphic & Visual Designer focused on creating clear, purposeful, and engaging visual communication.
My work covers branding, marketing, digital and print design, social media, and apparel, with a strong focus on turning ideas into effective visual experiences.
I also work across email marketing, web design, motion graphics, and video, helping brands maintain a consistent visual presence across different platforms.
I believe good design should communicate, connect, and create impact; not just look good.

TEAM EXTREME

POLO TSHIRT DESIGN

This project highlights the full workflow for the "Team Extreme" polo design, moving from vector pre-press layout in Illustrator to realistic 3D mockup rendering in Photoshop.

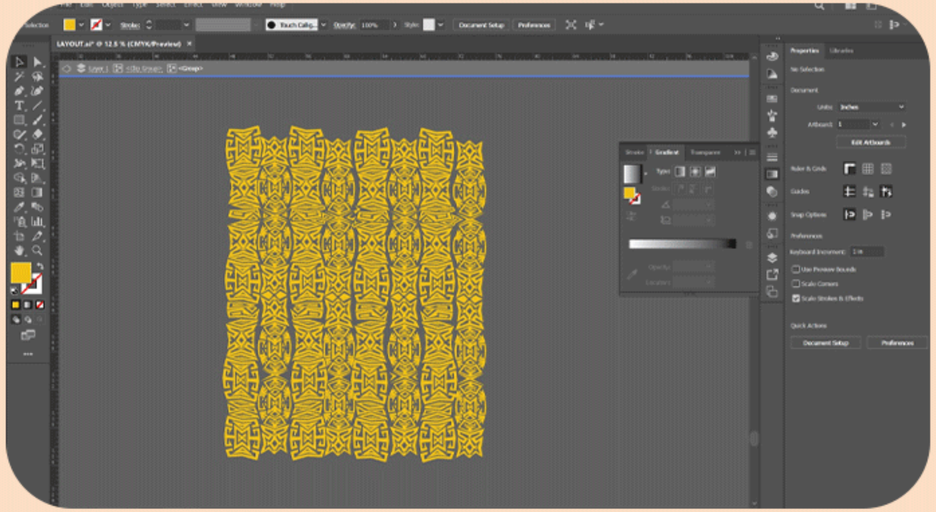

feat.

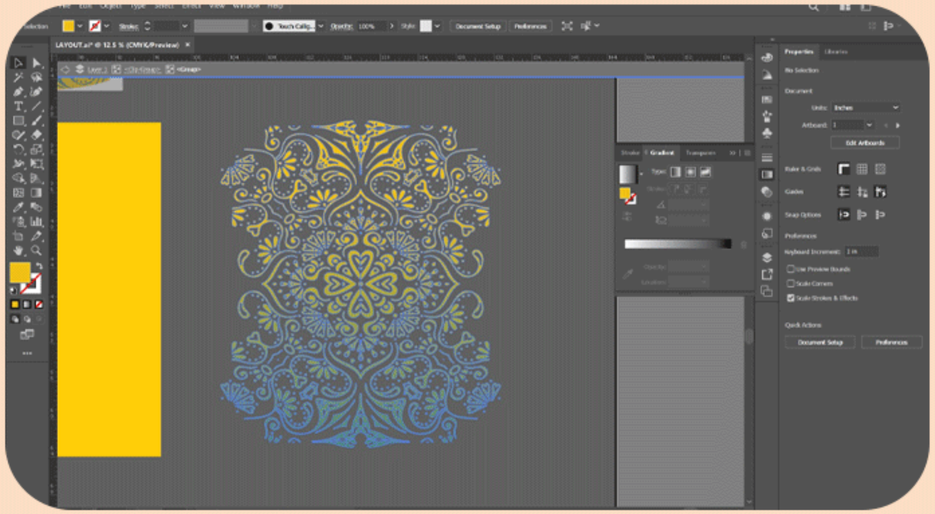

Skull motif, bold typography, and identity sleeve patch details.

By overlaying a seamless hexagonal geometric pattern onto a smooth black-to-grey gradient bleed, the flat vector panels transition into a polished, sublimation production-ready sportswear design

GLOBAL WORRIORS

RAGLAN TSHIRT DESIGN

This project shows the full process of turning custom vector concepts into production-ready apparel artwork. It blends intricate, built-from-scratch baroque and mandala patterns with a bold yellow and charcoal palette engineered specifically for high-definition dye-sublimation printing. By mapping these detailed graphics directly onto garment flat-lays; complete with true color separation, bold typography, and precise panel bleeds the files transition seamlessly from digital design to the factory floor

PRINT DESIGN

PRODUCT LABEL

This collection features custom product label design for the Eden Enterprise food and beverage line, paired with realistic 3D jar products.

Scope

The project entails branding, vibrant color palettes, and clear informational hierarchy, organizing ingredients, health benefits, and regulatory details into clean, print-ready packaging layouts.

Date: 2026

BANNERS & ROLL-UP

This collection showcases high impact promotional print design, including large-format banners and roll-up displays built to grab attention. It uses clear visual hierarchy tailored for each industry, combining vibrant colors, sharp food photography, and structured layouts to highlight core services. Every layout balances bold typography and clear call-to-actions, ensuring maximum readability and professional print quality.
